GLOBAL COVERAGE

Travelers National Property offers international property coverage for domestic-based companies with operations outside the United States.

Whether it's our corporate staff, regional vice presidents or local underwriters located throughout the U.S., we have the expertise to understand the unique requirements of international companies and their worldwide insurance needs. Our affiliate companies are large, well-established organizations dominant in their own markets, enabling them to provide a full range of products and services to both local and international clients.

Coverage can be written as part of a global program, where both the domestic and international portions of the account are written by Travelers.
