

Custom Cargo

OCEAN MARINE

When your account doesn't fit the mold, and you need creative solutions for not-so-run-of-the-mill shipments, Travelers has the experience and expertise you're looking for.

Customized ocean cargo coverage designed for complex global transportation exposures

Complex risks can't fall within pre-packaged policies. Products such as refrigerated goods, foodstuffs and pharmaceuticals will have different requirements than shipments of metals, machinery and automobiles. Work with a company that can help you to safely navigate global transportation exposures – and a company you can trust to provide superior claims services when losses occur.

At Travelers Ocean Marine, we strive to develop a thorough understanding of the specialized business needs of your customers. Our goal is to provide Custom Cargo coverage tailored for the unique product requirements and global transportation process of each client.

Whether you need contingent interest, consequential loss, control of damaged goods or something entirely specialized, let us design a tailored policy with coverages that are right for you.

Want a clearer picture? Here are some examples of commodities we have recently insured:

- Tallow to Turkey
- Tapioca from Thailand
- Wheat from the Midwest
- Pine nuts from China
- Coal and copper concentrates to the Far East
- Beef from Uruguay
- Coffee from South America
- Ethylene glycol (anti-freeze) worldwide
