OCEAN MARINE

Companies within the marine transportation industry face unique marine and non-marine exposures in their daily operations. With Travelers' marine transportation program – featuring many ocean marine and property and casualty (P&C) coverages – we can help keep your clients moving in the right direction.

Tailored insurance solutions for your clients

Marine transportation coverage is designed for businesses carrying goods or people. Target classes include:

- Crew/supply boats
- Excursion and sightseeing vessels
- Ferries
- Pilot boats
- Police and fire boats
- Research vessels
- Tugs and barges
- Workboats

Marine transportation coverage includes the following

- Commercial hull protects against physical damage to the hull, machinery and equipment; and collision liability
- Protection and indemnity (P&I) protects the vessel owner against legal liabilities arising out of negligence in the operation of a vessel. Includes coverage for both property damage and bodily injury liability

Expand the scope of protection by including these coverages for additional exposures

- Bumpershoot provides excess liability protection over both marine and non-marine coverages, including auto, general, and employer's liability
- Marine general liability
- P&C coverages can include property, auto, crime, business interruption, inland marine, and more

Travelers is a leading provider of ocean marine insurance in the United States with an extensive product portfolio including cargo, hull, liabilities, and luxury yacht.

With in-house risk control and claim expertise – and a P&C unit dedicated to our customers' non-marine exposures – Travelers provides your client with a total account solution.
