1. OVERSEAS CAR RENTALS
An accident in a rented vehicle abroad may leave the driver’s employer liable for damage and for resulting injuries.

2. WATERCRAFT ChARTERS
Non-owned or hired watercraft, like a boat chartered to entertain customers, could make a business liable for accidents or physical damage.

3. BUSINESS ACQUISITION
After an acquisition, it may take longer than the typical 90 days to add additional insureds to a primary policy.

4. CRISIS MANAGEMENT
A mismanaged crisis can damage a company’s reputation and diminish its brand long term.

5. WORLDWIDE COVERAGE
Expanding business ventures around the world may create coverage gaps that call for a global policy.

6. FIRST AID AT WORK
Employees providing first aid while at work could expose a business to liability for any injuries that arise.
