

National Programs Quick Reference Card

PROGRAMS – RETAIL AGENT ACCESS

National Programs is a dedicated unit within Travelers focusing on delivering tailored programs for customers with similar insurance coverage needs. Having a specialization within different targeted industries allows National Programs to understand the specific insurance coverage and risk exposures inherent to specific businesses and locations, and thus have the know-how to develop custom coverage solutions to address each segment's unique needs. Following is a summary of the programs accessible to retail agents:

Architects, Engineers and Surveyors (AE&S)

The Travelers AE&S program was built to respond to the unique property casualty requirements of this growing segment and its evolving needs. It is designed for commercial and residential projects and businesses that already carry adequate professional liability limits and have no construction operations.

Collector Car

The Travelers Collector Car program offers a line of business insurance tailored for the collector car market. The program is written through Hagerty Insurance and focuses on accounts generating at least 50 percent of their revenue from collector car vehicles. Collector vehicles are defined as 25 years of age or older, or such rare, exotic or unique design that limits production. Comprehensive agreed-value coverage is geared towards restoration shops, collector car museums, dealerships, storage facilities and business-titled collections.
