

National Programs Quick Reference Card

PROGRAMS – SINGLE DISTRIBUTION POINT

National Programs is a dedicated unit within Travelers focusing on delivering tailored programs for customers with similar insurance coverage needs. Having a specialization within different targeted industries allows National Programs to understand the specific insurance coverage and risk exposures inherent to specific businesses and locations, and thus have the know-how to develop custom coverage solutions to address each segment’s unique needs. Following is a summary of the programs accessible through single distribution points.

AVMA VETS

The Travelers AVMA Vets program is written through Hub Chicago and focuses on vet practices in all states within the continental United States. They operate clinics and hospitals that diagnose, treat or control disease and injuries. They also provide routine checkups and vaccinations for domestic and farm animals. The program focuses on all major property casualty lines with the professional liability insurance being provided by the AVMA trust.
