

The Staff Counsel Investigative Unit works closely with our staff counsel attorneys to identify critical information in preparation for, or in support of, defending litigation against our policyholders.

Our team members are seasoned and experienced investigators who have demonstrated knowledge of legal processes, court systems and civil litigation procedures. This specialized knowledge allows us to recognize the needs of your business and to customize our product to your unique jurisdiction. We work hard for an optimal outcome.

Our specialties include:

- Identifying subrogation issues
- Locating missing persons: witnesses, clients, subjects who are attempting to avoid subrogation
- Identifying assets
- Conducting interviews, taking statements, and helping secure the appearance of witnesses

- Reviewing accident scenes to gather evidence and essential data
- Locating and obtaining legal documents
- Verifying licensing and identifying instances of professional misconduct
- Providing pre-trial investigative planning and “real-time” trial support in the courtroom

Successful litigation management helps stop fraud in its tracks. We want you to keep your hard-earned money where it belongs – working for the good of your business.

Seasoned investigators with demonstrated legal knowledge.
