SPEAKER 1: For a trucking company, it's about getting from point A to point B, drivers and loads, safely and efficiently. At Northland, our team will stop at nothing to ensure our customers have a smooth ride for the long haul. Like the time we recovered a load of stolen cargo for a customer in less than 24 hours, or when we quickly arranged for a loaner hood to be installed after an accident enabling the driver to get back on the road within 90 minutes, or when with a single phone call we helped a customer get a fuel spill cleaned up overnight.

We know how to keep you moving, because we know the road, we know the industry, we know truck, and we have the knowledge risk control and claim experts, underwriters and legal resources to help keep you humming along. We call the total of this knowledge the Northland advantage.
