

Alan D. Schnitzer

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

Alan D. Schnitzer is the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of The Travelers Companies, Inc., one of America's largest property casualty insurers and a component of the Dow Jones Industrial Average.

Since becoming CEO in 2015 and Chairman of the Board in 2016, Alan has led Travelers and its 30,000 employees in an ambitious innovation agenda, digitizing the value chain and investing in new technologies, products and services to lead the industry in defining the future of property casualty insurance. Under Alan's leadership, Travelers has delivered industry-leading financial results, including strong top and bottom line growth.

Under his stewardship, Travelers has been a leading voice on corporate sustainability as a principle that is fully integrated into the company's approach to value creation as detailed on the company's leading sustainability website.

In particular, Alan has led Travelers' diversity and inclusion business imperative. During his tenure, Travelers has achieved meaningful and consistent equity gains, increasing the percentage of women and people of color in management-level positions. Travelers is listed as one of the Best Places to Work for LGBTQ Equality by the Human Rights Campaign. Travelers has been recognized annually as one of the 100 Best Companies to Work For by Fortune, and Travelers employees have ranked Alan as one of Glassdoor's top 100 CEOs for each of the last three years.

Alan serves on the Board of Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania. He also serves on the Board of Trustees of Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center and the Board of Directors of New York City Ballet. An active proponent of the value of collaboration between the public and private sectors, he is a member of the Business Roundtable and serves on the executive committee of the Partnership for New York City.

Alan graduated from The Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, where he majored in finance and accounting. He earned his J.D. from Columbia Law School. Prior to joining Travelers, Schnitzer served as a partner at Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP. He joined Travelers as Vice Chairman and Chief Legal Officer in 2007. A native of Dallas, Texas and longtime New York City resident, Schnitzer and his wife, Anne, have two children.
