

Scott McKenzie

Scott McKenzie is a Division I track & cross country runner from Melbourne, Australia pursuing his PhD in Leadership and Policy at Lipscomb University in Nashville, TN. As an international student athlete- Scott has gotten his Bachelor and Masters of Business Administration from Lipscomb University where he is involved in the Student Athlete Advisory Committee at both the school and conference levels. Scott is passionate about sports-branding, story-telling, and creating opportunities and changing lives through the world of sport which he does through his role as an NCAA Compliance & Student-Athlete Development Graduate Assistant.